

Call for Presentation Proposals

Canadian Network for Innovation in Education Presents:

"Reimagining Education: Bridging the Gap Between Emergency Distributed Learning and Mainstream Pedagogy"

Date: May 15, 2024

Time: 12:30 – 5:30 p.m. NT / 8:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. PT

Location: Online Conference

The Canadian Network for Innovation in Education (CNIE) invites submissions for our upcoming one-day online conference exploring the theme "Reimagining Education: Bridging the Gap Between Emergency Distributed Learning and Mainstream Pedagogy." This conference aims to delve into the lessons learned from emergency distributed learning and how these insights can be effectively integrated back into mainstream education across all modalities.

We invite professionals supporting the educational missions of post-secondary organizations, K-12 systems, continuing education, professional development, and workplace training to submit proposals for presentations, workshops, and panel discussions that address the following topics:

1. Strategies for transitioning from emergency distributed learning to mainstream education.
2. Innovative teaching and learning approaches developed during emergency situations and their applicability to traditional educational settings.
3. Effective uses of technology in both emergency and mainstream education.
4. Pedagogical insights gained from emergency distributed learning and their impact on instructional design.
5. Equity and accessibility considerations in emergency and mainstream education.
6. Lessons learned from student experiences during emergency distributed learning and their implications for future educational practices.

Presentations will be 20 minutes, including time for Q&A.

Each presentation may involve up to 3 presenters. All presenters must register for the conference. At least one presenter must be a current CNIE member in good standing.

All presenters will be invited to participate in a special issue of the International Journal of E-learning and Distance Education.

Submission Guidelines:

- Abstracts should be no more than 250 words.
- Proposals for presentations, workshops, and panel discussions should include a title, brief description, and intended format (e.g., presentation, interactive workshop, panel discussion).
- Submissions must be received by Friday, April 12, 2024.
- Please submit your proposals by email to conference-congres@cnie-rcie.ca.

Important Dates:

- Submission Deadline: Friday, April 12, 2024
- Notification of Acceptance: April 21, 2024
- Conference Date: May 15, 2024

Join us as we explore innovative ways to reimagine education and bridge the gap between emergency distributed learning and mainstream pedagogy. We look forward to engaging discussions, sharing of best practices, and collaborative efforts to shape the future of education.
